

Quran Appreciation

Sura Anbiya – Session Five

Trivia Question

What two points do you get about hypocrites from Sura Munafiqun (#63)

Hadith on the Quran

Nothing is harder for Shaytan to bear than a person who recites the Qur'an by looking at the pages of the Qur'an.

Holy Prophet (s)

Passage from Sura Anbiya

Read verses 59 - 63 of Sura Anbiya.

Read also Sura Shuara (#26), verse 69-74

Why does Nabi Ibrahim break the idols?

What does he tell his people?

Making people think for themselves

Allah always asks people to think:

And He it is Who spread the earth and made in it firm mountains and rivers, and of all fruits He has made in it two kinds; He makes the night cover the day; most surely there are signs in this for a people who think.

Sura Ra'd, 13:3

Making Connections

- Getting people to think
- Praising God to others
- Not being passive to wrong
- Being serious about important matters, joking only at certain times.
- Reflecting on creation

Activity

1) Form groups

2) Children act out the story of Nabi Ibrahim and the conversations he has from verses 52-63 of Sura Anbiya.

3) Cast includes:

- Narrator
- Nabi Ibrahim
- His uncle
- Idol worshippers
- Reflector (reflects and connects incident to today's times)