

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

A'maal for the 1st Thursday evening
of the month of Rajab
(Laylatur Raghaa'ib)

What is Laylatur Raghaa'ib?

- It is the night on which the believers intensely seek and covet their wishes from the Almighty Allah
- It falls on the first Thursday evening of the month of Rajab

Benefits of the A'maal of Laylatur Raghaa'ib

- Numerous benefits have been mentioned, three of which are:
 - Forgiveness of major sins
 - Safety from troubles of the first night in the grave
 - Shelter on the Day of Resurrection

A'maal takes a form of a person

- “O dear friend, good news to you! You are safe from all troubles!” The deceased in the grave will ask: “Who you are you? I have never seen a face better than yours; nor have I heard words sweeter than yours; nor have I smelled a perfume more refreshing than from you!”
- “My dear, I am the act, which you performed on that particular night, month and year, and in that particular country. I have come tonight, in your loneliness and hopelessness. And when the trumpet on the Day of Judgment will be heard, I’ll take you out and provide you with a pleasant cover over your head. So, be full of joy. No goodness will be denied to you.”

Prerequisite of the A'maal

- Fast on the first Thursday of Rajab
- Question 1: What if someone did not know about fasting on this day?
- Answer 1: Do the niyyat of fasting the following Thursday in Rajab
- Question 2: What if I did not fast on this day deliberately?
- Answer 2: The Almighty is All-generous, He will not let you're a'maal go in waste

After the Maghrib prayers, recite

6 prayers of 2 Rak'ah each.

In every Rak 'ah recite the following:

- Suratul Fatiha
- 3 x Suratul Qadr (No. 97)
