

Familiarization with Quranic Sūras

Month of Ramadan 1440 – Day 4

Sūra al-Qasas, No. 28

Sūra Information

Sūra al-Qasas. No.28. Revealed in Makkah, 88 verses.

This sūra was revealed at a time when the Muslims faced great pressure from the enemies who were more in number and possessed worldly power. The situation was very similar to that of the Banu Israel and the people of Fir‘awn and more than half of this sūra narrates those stories to console and reassure the Muslims.

The sūra takes its name from the story Prophet Musa ﷺ narrated to Prophet Shu‘ayb ﷺ about his departure from Egypt (verse 25).

This sūra is the third of three sūras (al-Shua’ra, al-Naml, and al-Qasas) that are known as the Tawāsin because of the abbreviated letters at the beginning of the sūras.

Sūra Significance

Whoever recites TāSīnMīm Qasas will be given the reward of ten times the number of those who believed in Musa ﷺ and those who rejected him, and there will be no angel in the Heavens and the earth except that it will bear witness for him on the Day of Judgment that he was truthful. Holy Prophet ﷺ (Tafsīr Majma‘ul Bayān).

Note: Tafsīr Namūne says that the reward is for one who recites and understands the sūra and follows the path of Prophet Musa ﷺ, is aligned in action with the believers of that time and against the likes of Fir‘awn and Qārūn.
