At the Academy for Learning Islam (A.L.I.), we are working continuously to add useful material for the benefit of all Muslims, particularly the followers of Prophet Muhammad's Household (the Ahlul Bayt). Please share any useful material or suggestions to director@academyofislam.com so we can include them too.

Holy Quran

In a Hadith received from a Ma'sūm Imam عليه السلام it says: for everything there is a season of spring, and the spring of the Quran is Ramadan. Alhamdu lillāh, you will find a lot of useful information on the Quran at www.academyofislam.com/quran

Quran Appreciation

The Academy has been teaching children ages 7 to 16 years Quranic verses, stories, and lessons for them to appreciate the Divine Book. Many of these students have imbibed the Quranic teachings in their lives and have gone on to build strong relationships with the Quran and spread the teachings to others. Feel free to read and download Quranic Appreciation lessons for your children and madrasah students.

Quranic Arabic

Over 650 short courses and seminars online and in person have been conducted at A.L.I. Many of these courses were designed to teach the language of the Holy Quran for Muslims to comprehend the Divine message contained in it. Tafsir sessions in English

One of the best activities in the days and nights of Holy Ramadan is listening to the tafāsīr of the Quran by speakers who derive the understanding of the Quran from the Holy Prophet ﷺ and his Ahlul Bayt عليه السلام. Instead of spending your valuable time searching these tafāsīr sessions all over the web, you can now find almost all English tafāsīr session in one place.

MāshāAllah, there is a lot of material on the Holy Quran all over the internet. The Academy has posted links to some useful resources here.

Du'ās (Supplications)

For Shī'ah Muslims, besides regular prayers, fasting, Quran tilāwah, reciting Du'ās (supplications) during the month of Ramadan is a highly emphasized activity. In Sūrat al-Baqarah in the section where Almighty Allah talks about fasting and its rules, He also asks His servants to do Du'ā. Allah ﷻ says: And when My servants ask you, [O Muhammad], concerning Me - indeed I am near. I respond to the invocation of the supplicant when he calls upon Me. So let them respond to Me [by obedience] and believe in Me that they may be [rightly] guided.

The A.L.I. website has the following resources on Du'ā:

Du'ās from Sahīfah Sajjādiyyah

From the core 54 supplications found in the Sahīfah, 6 Du'ās are recited during the Holy Month of Ramadan. These are Du'ā Makārim al-Akhlāq (No. 20), Du'ā al-Tawbah (No. 31), Du'ā upon completing the recitation of the Quran (No. 42), Du'ā for welcoming the month of Ramadan (No. 44) and Du'ā for bidding farewell to the month of Ramadan (No. 45). All these six supplications along with the Arabic text, dual translation, and comprehensive summaries appear here. Additionally, you can find in the same place, a lot of material on the Sahīfah Sajjādiyyah.

Other Du'ās

As mentioned earlier, the month of Ramadan is also the season of beseeching the Almighty by invoking beautiful supplications taught by the Holy Prophet ﷺ and his Ahlul Bayt عليه السلام. You can find some of these supplications by clicking on Duas under resources. Amongst the popular recitations in this month are Du'ās: Abū Hamazah Thumālī, Thanking Allah daily for the four blessings, upon entering a masjid, for increasing knowledge, before Quran tilāwah, when performing wudū, before reading and studying, during an epidemic, for good memory, Ziyārah of 'Ahad of Imam Zaman (af), shorter method of Tahajjud salāt, etc.
